Introduction

Verra Mobility Corporation and its direct and indirect subsidiaries (together referred to as “Verra Mobility”) insists on honesty, integrity and fairness in all aspects of the conduct of its business and expects those that act on its behalf to exhibit the highest standards of professionalism and ethical conduct. Verra Mobility expects the same in its relationships with all those with whom it does business.

The success of our business is dependent on the trust and confidence we earn from our employees, agents, contractors, consultants, customers and shareholders. We gain credibility by adhering to our commitments, displaying honesty and integrity, and reaching company goals solely through honorable conduct.

Scope and Enforcement

This policy governs the behavior of everyone engaged by Verra Mobility when conducting business on its behalf (hereafter referred to as "you").

Our ethical approach affects all areas of Verra Mobility. The Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy and Procedure ("ABC Policy") represents our commitment to upholding the aforementioned values and standards. The ABC Policy is based on internationally accepted best practice guidelines and supplements the Verra Mobility Code of Business Ethics and Conduct, and other Verra Mobility policies as referenced herein.

When working for Verra Mobility, you are agreeing and obliged to:

- uphold this commitment;
- ensure you understand the requirements of the ABC Policy; and
- always follow the ABC Policy.

Failure to comply with the ABC Policy creates a legal, regulatory and reputational risk for Verra Mobility. Anyone who is found to be giving or receiving bribes or any other act of corruption, or involved in otherwise violating the ABC Policy, will be subject to disciplinary action, which may ultimately lead to their dismissal or termination of their contract of service, as the case may be.

In addition, violation of the ABC Policy or any applicable laws could be a serious criminal offense, which may result in fines, criminal charges or imprisonment, for Verra Mobility, for you and anyone else involved.

Structure of Verra Mobility ABC Policy

The ABC Policy is to be read and interpreted in conjunction with the Verra Mobility Code of Business Ethics and Conduct, and other Verra Mobility policies that may be referenced herein.

Each section is structured as follows:

- Principles are the underlying values and concepts which govern Verra Mobility's activity and in light of which you must constantly evaluate your conduct.
- Rules are mandatory and set out what you can and cannot do. Failure to comply with the rules is automatically a violation of the ABC Policy.
- Guidance is given to help you interpret the principles and rules and apply them effectively. The guidance is not mandatory, but it will be considered and is persuasive when evaluating your conduct.

Roles and Responsibilities

Board Level Sponsorship

The commitment of Verra Mobility to anti-bribery and corruption is reinforced by the Audit Committee of the Board of Director's sponsorship of, and commitment to, the strategy, policy and procedures contained herein. The ABC Policy sponsor is Verra Mobility's General Counsel.

Everyone engaged by Verra Mobility when conducting business on its behalf is personally responsible for:

- their ethical and professional conduct generally and with regard to compliance with the ABC Policy;
- obtaining advice and guidance where necessary; and
- reporting all violations of the ABC Policy, and/or any ethical or professional misconduct, whether committed personally or by others.

Concerns or reports about violations of the ABC Policy should be made to an appropriate manager or a member of the Verra Mobility Compliance and Ethics Committee¹. You may also make a confidential report to the Verra Mobility EthicsLine (which can be done anonymously), online at ethicsline.verramobility.com or via the toll-free telephone number 844-927-2814 in the U.S.²

Managers and supervisors are also personally responsible for ensuring compliance by everyone involved in matters they are managing or supervising (this includes Third Parties).

In addition to the above, those in management or leadership roles must lead by example by:

- remaining alert to the risk of bribery and corruption;
- promoting awareness of and compliance with the ABC Policy within Verra Mobility and amongst those they supervise; and
- forwarding reports made to them about violations of the ABC Policy to the Director of Contracts and Compliance or the EthicsLine.

¹ The Compliance and Ethics Committee includes the Chief Financial Officer, Chief People Officer, General Counsel, Deputy General Counsel – Government Solutions and Director of Contracts and Compliance.

² Toll-free telephone numbers are also available in several other jurisdictions. All toll-free numbers and dialing instructions are available at ethicsline.verramobility.com.

Good Practice

Principle

Verra Mobility is committed to international standards of good practice in combatting bribery and corruption. This means that we will take appropriate steps to ensure that:

- We do not file with any government office or employee a written instrument that intentionally contains a false statement or false information.
- We do not intentionally falsify business records.
- We do not knowingly commit any fraud, or file or make any knowingly false or fraudulent reports, statements or representations, in connection with our compliance with any governmental law, regulation, rule or contract requirement.
- We do not give, or offer to give, money, gratuities, or any other benefit to a labor official, including, but not limited to, an official in a labor organization that has represented, represents, or may represent Verra Mobility's employees.
- We do not give, or offer to give, money, gratuities, or any other benefit to any public servant, including, but not limited to, a public servant who is an employee or official of a political subdivision or governmental entity with which Verra Mobility currently conducts, has conducted, or may conduct business in contravention of the applicable federal, state, or local laws, regulations or rules; except that this provision is not intended to infringe upon any person or entity's right to make political contributions.
- We do not, directly or indirectly, offer, promise, give, solicit or receive a bribe or other undue advantage (including gifts and hospitality) in order to obtain or retain business, or any other improper business advantage.
- We do not make or attempt to make any agreement that seeks, or participate in any scheme to rig bids, restrain trade by collusion or unfair trade or labor practices, or prevent the lowest responsible bidder from obtaining a contract.
- We do not knowingly participate in the activities of any organized crime group, or knowingly permit or allow any person allegedly employed by or associated with any such organized crime group, to participate in any of the business affairs of the Company.
- We engage and remunerate agents and other Third Parties only for legitimate services that cannot reasonably be provided by our own people.
- All new Third-Party relationships are adequately vetted.
- We promote internal awareness of, and compliance with, Verra Mobility's policies against bribery and corruption through appropriate dissemination of policies, procedures, training programs and disciplinary procedures.

- We adopt management control systems that discourage bribery and corruption, and adopt financial and tax accounting and auditing practices that prevent the establishment of "off the books" or secret accounts, or the creation of documents which do not properly and fairly record the transactions to which they relate.
- We do not conspire with anyone to perform any acts otherwise prohibited by the Policy.

Rules

Do not engage in any activity which would violate the ABC Policy, including the Good Practice Principle, or any anti-corruption laws.

Guidance

Here are some things to look out for and general tips that will help you apply good practice:

- Familiarize yourself with the ABC Policy and related policies and apply these at all times.
- Remember that bribery and corruption can be extremely subtle and sophisticated, so be alert. If something feels wrong, it is often because it is.
- Different countries have different customs; what is an accepted custom or the norm of behavior in one country may be perceived as irregular in another. Never assume that because something is accepted or the norm it cannot be bribery or corruption. Always stop and think about what is right.
- If you have reason to suspect bribes are being offered, given or requested you must report it, you should never ignore the situation in the hope that it will go away (see Reporting Violations).
- Consider the risks associated with your work and adapt your approach to address the risks identified. For example:
 - Consider your position and personal exposure, the area you work in, and who you are dealing with;
 - Consider the risk associated with the country where you are doing business, where the transaction or work is being undertaken, or where any Third Parties you engage are based;
 - Consider the nature of the business and whether this presents any risks;
 - Consider whether your job or the work you are doing involves procurement of goods or services which will expose Verra Mobility to vicarious risk; and
 - Think about and look out for "red flag" indicators of corruption (as described below).

To help you, please see below some common indicators of corruption (“red flags”):

- Abnormal cash payments.
- Pressure exerted for payments to be made urgently or ahead of schedule.
- Payments being made through a third country, i.e., goods or services supplied to country A, but payment is being made to a shell company in country B.
- Abnormally high commission percentages being paid to a Third Party. This may be split into two accounts for the same agent, often in different jurisdictions. In some jurisdictions, a commission payment of any value in connection with the award of a government contract is strictly prohibited (see “Working with Governments” section).
- Extravagant gifts or hospitality being given or received. In dealing with government agencies that are customers, gifts or hospitality of any value may be strictly prohibited. Consult with the Verra Mobility Legal Department in advance. (See “Working with Governments” section.)
- Unexplained preference of certain individuals for receipt of benefits, especially when outside of normal selection and control procedures (e.g. employment, placements, internships, etc.).
- A person who never takes time off, even if ill, or for holidays, or insists on always dealing with specific contractors him or herself.
- Making unexpected, uncommercial or illogical decisions when accepting projects or contracts.
- Entering into contracts not favorable to Verra Mobility either in respect of the terms or the time period.
- Unexplained preference for certain contractors or subcontractors during tendering or at any point during the contract.
- Avoidance of conducting diligence on Third Parties involved in the tendering or contracting processes.
- Raising barriers around specific roles or departments that are key in the tendering or contracting process.
- Bypassing normal tendering or contracting procedures.
- Agreement to invoices in excess of or below the agreed contract value without reasonable cause or explanation.
- Missing documents or records regarding meetings or decisions.
- Verra Mobility procedures or guidelines not being followed.
- The payment of, or making funds available for, high value expenses on behalf of others.

DO	DON'T
Remain alert to the risks of bribery and corruption Seek further guidance immediately if you have any queries or concerns related to any of the activities addressed in this document (See Reporting Violations) Seek further guidance immediately if you are being asked to do something that makes you uncomfortable, or which you suspect may be illegal (See Reporting Violations) Ensure all gifts and hospitality given or received comply with applicable laws, regulations, and contractual limits	Engage in any activity or transaction which would lead to a violation of the ABC Policy, including the Good Practice Principle, or any applicable law Be persuaded by others to do something which you suspect might be unethical or illegal Ever attempt to induce anyone else to do something unethical or illegal, even if "everyone else is doing it" Ignore or fail to report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity

Bribes and Facilitation Payments

Principle

Verra Mobility and any Third Party must never offer, promise, give, solicit or receive a bribe, facilitation payment, kickback or other improper payment for any reason or in any form.

Verra Mobility has a clear position on bribery and corruption; the direct or indirect offer or promise to make a payment or transfer of anything of value, and the soliciting or acceptance of bribes in any form by or on behalf of Verra Mobility to obtain or retain business or a commercial advantage is unacceptable and prohibited.

Rules

Verra Mobility does not offer, promise, give, solicit or receive bribes in any form. This prohibition applies to:

- Transactions with foreign or domestic government officials or employees (see "Working with Governments" section), or with any private company or person; whether in the conduct of domestic or international business.
- Payments made or received directly or through a Third Party, or any agent thereof.

Guidance

- No distinction is made between bribes and so-called 'facilitation' payments, which are also prohibited. A facilitation payment is a small payment to a low-level Public Official, which is not officially required, to enable or speed up a process which it is the official's job to arrange (e.g. a work permit).
- A bribe includes "kickbacks" which are also prohibited. A kickback is a form of bribery in which a portion of the revenues from a contract or other financial award is illicitly returned to the person awarding that contract or benefit.
- A bribe can include a benefit or advantage given or received in any form, and includes;
 - cash;
 - gifts, hospitality or entertaining;
 - travel and accommodation;
 - use of property or equipment;
 - job offers and work placements;
 - political contributions;
 - charitable donations;
 - favors;
 - the provision of services (which may include the employment of people in certain circumstances),
 - advantages for family or friends of Third Parties (this includes any of the above plus employment opportunities, training, work experience, internships or other permanent or temporary positions).

DO	DON'T
Use caution when offering, giving or receiving gifts or entertainment (see "Gifts and Hospitality")	Offer, accept, solicit or pay bribes or kickbacks, or make facilitation payments
Seek advice if you are unsure about giving or receiving a gift or anything of value (see Reporting Violations)	Use agents or other Third Parties to offer, accept, solicit or pay bribes or kickbacks, or make facilitation payments indirectly on behalf of Verra Mobility
Ensure that any Third Party understands Verra Mobility's policy on bribes and facilitation payments, and agrees to comply with it	Use other forms of giving or receiving as a substitute for a "bribe", (e.g., political contributions or charitable donations, gifts or hospitality)

Report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity immediately (See Reporting Violations)

Ignore or fail to report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity

Working with Governments

Principle

Whenever Verra Mobility conducts business or otherwise engages with national or local governments, government agencies, Public Officials and public international agencies, our partners and anyone engaged by or on behalf of Verra Mobility must apply the highest ethical standards.

Rules

- It is prohibited to make illicit or secret payments or transfers of anything of value to Public Officials.
- It is prohibited to offer or receive gifts or hospitality to or from Public Officials without first determining that such gifts or hospitality is expressly allowed under the laws and regulations governing that Public Official. (If there is any doubt, see Reporting Violations.)
- It is prohibited to make any illicit payments or transfers of items of value through intermediaries, or to a Third Party, while knowing that all or a portion of the payment will go directly or indirectly to a Public Official.
- No-one acting on behalf of Verra Mobility may attempt to or exert improper influence on Public Officials.
- If asked to provide information in connection with a government or regulatory agency inquiry, you must ensure that all information provided is truthful and accurate and that Verra Mobility's legitimate interests are protected.

Guidance

- You should take extra care when dealing with Public Officials. Most countries in the world have made it an offense to bribe their own Public Officials; many have also made it an offense to bribe a foreign Public Official.
- If asked to assist with a government or regulatory agency inquiry or investigation you must always seek advice before responding. (See Reporting Violations)

DO	DON'T
Ensure you understand and abide by applicable laws and regulations relating to work with governments, particularly special requirements associated with government contracts and transactions Ensure that any Third Party understands Verra Mobility's policy on working with government officials and agrees to comply with them Be truthful and accurate when dealing with government officials and agencies Seek advice if you are unsure about what to do when working with government officials (See Reporting Violations) Report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity immediately (See Reporting Violations)	Deviate from contractual requirements without written approval from both sides Use agents or other Third Parties to do anything indirectly on behalf of Verra Mobility which you would not be permitted to do yourself Attempt to induce a local or government official to do something illegal Ignore or fail to report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity Mislead any government or regulatory official Attempt to obstruct in any manner an authorized government official in the proper conduct of their duties or attempt to hinder another person from providing accurate information Conceal, alter or destroy documents, information or records which are the subject of an official investigation

Gifts and Hospitality

Principle

Verra Mobility and any Third Party must never use gifts and hospitality to improperly influence business decision-making processes or cause others to perceive an improper influence. The use of gifts and hospitality in this manner constitutes an improper payment for the purposes of Verra Mobility's policy on bribes and facilitation payments.

Verra Mobility has a clear position that forbids the solicitation of gifts and hospitality and ensures that the circumstances in which reasonable and proportionate gifts and hospitality are offered, promised, given or accepted are restricted to those which are appropriate and compliant with applicable law and regulation.

Rules

Prohibited gifts and hospitality:

- Solicitation of gifts or hospitality is strictly prohibited.
- Giving or accepting cash gifts is strictly prohibited.
- The giving of gifts or hospitality, especially with regard to government officials or employees, must comply with applicable laws, regulations, and contractual limits.

Permitted Gifts and Hospitality

It is accepted that a bona fide promotional expenditure, or other expenditure which seeks to improve the image of Verra Mobility, better present our products or services, or develop and establish relationships, is an important part of doing business.

After due consideration of the rules and guidance contained in this document, the acceptance or giving of gifts and hospitality is permitted in certain circumstances. If it would cause awkwardness to refuse, and you are sure that you are not breaking any law, you may accept or give the following without prior approval:

- corporate gifts which feature the logo of the donor (diaries, umbrellas, calendars etc.).
- gifts of a nominal value given during the festive season, religious festivals, or other periods of the year where gifts are traditionally exchanged in the country concerned.
- occasional non-extravagant meals (or other entertaining).
- occasional invitations to non-extravagant corporate hospitality events, not extending over a period of more than one day.

Procedure and Approval

The giving of all other gifts and hospitality not expressly permitted must be pre-approved by the Director of Contracts and Compliance or General Counsel, and only accepted or given in compliance with both the ABC Policy and the applicable travel and expense policies where claims for reimbursement are being made.

In the event that gifts and hospitality not expressly permitted by the ABC Policy are given or received without pre-approval (or disclosure in the case of receipt), the incident should be reported to an appropriate member of management, to a member of the Verra Mobility Compliance and Ethics Committee or to the EthicsLine.

Guidance

- The acceptance or offer of modest gifts and hospitality (as described above) may be a legitimate contribution to good business relationships; however, if you have any doubt about the propriety of accepting a gift or hospitality (including entertainment) from a business partner, you must refuse.
- There may be times when refusing to accept a gift from a business partner would be considered discourteous. In that event, you may accept the gift on behalf of the Company. You must then turn the gift over to the Director of Contracts and Compliance.
- You need to exercise particular caution when providing gifts or hospitality to business partners or prospective business partners, or to representatives of the same, where these individuals have discretion over the allocation of work.
- If the offer of gifts, hospitality or entertainment relates to a Public Official or procurement by a government entity, all laws, regulations and contractual requirements must be followed. It is the offeror's responsibility to know and follow these requirements.
- Verra Mobility staff should consider the following questions before accepting or offering a gift or hospitality:
 - Is the recipient currently involved in decisions to award business or another advantage to Verra Mobility? Alternatively, is the party making the offer currently tendering for business or another advantage from you?
 - Does this gift or hospitality seem excessive in value?
 - By accepting this gift or hospitality, could I violate any applicable laws, regulations or contractual obligations?
 - Is this gift, hospitality or entertainment event directly related to the award or retention of business or other business advantage?
 - Is this gift, hospitality or entertainment event a 'reward' for the award or retention of business or other business advantage?
 - Would my colleagues be unhappy to see Verra Mobility's name reported in the press in connection with this gift or hospitality event?

If the answer to any of these questions is yes, the gift or hospitality should not be offered or accepted. If you are not clear how to answer these questions you should seek advice. (See Reporting Violations). Additional guidance is provided in Section C.6 in the Verra Mobility Code of Business Ethics and Conduct.

DO	DON'T
Before offering or accepting any gifts or hospitality, make sure you obtain approval and understand the applicable legal, regulatory and contractual requirements Make gifts or offer hospitality only in compliance with this policy and applicable laws and regulations Take into consideration the policy(ies) of the recipient's organization, which may be contained in a contract Consider local customs for the giving or receiving of gifts and entertainment (subject to compliance with this policy) Be aware of the potential conflicts of interest if you accept gifts or hospitality Make the criteria for inviting guests to hospitality events clear and internally transparent Seek advice if you are unsure about the giving or receiving of gifts or hospitality (See Reporting Violations) Report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity immediately (See Reporting Violations)	Give or accept the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gifts or hospitality which you know or suspect to be in violation of the law or contractual requirements; • Cash or cash equivalents; • Service to/from a business partner supplied with the intention of influencing a decision • Loans; • Travel and/or accommodation costs for family members • Events or meals where the business partner is not present; • Gifts or hospitality during periods when important decisions, regarding the award or retention of business or a business advantage, are being made with the business partner Be embarrassed to decline any offer by referring to this policy; this will be understood by the business counterparty who in most cases will be subject to similar rules Give or receive gifts or entertainment you would feel uncomfortable explaining to your work colleagues, your family or the media Differentiate between giving and receiving gifts and hospitality directly or via an intermediary Ignore or fail to report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity

Political Contributions

Principle

Verra Mobility will make no political contributions, whether in cash or in kind, except where a clear written business case has been made and approved in accordance with the Verra Mobility Political Contributions Policy.

Rules

- Political contributions made on behalf of Verra Mobility, or from Verra Mobility's resources, without pre-approval as outlined in the Verra Mobility Political Contributions Policy are prohibited.
- Verra Mobility recognizes the rights of partners and others engaged by or on behalf of Verra Mobility to participate as individuals in the political process and make political donations in their personal capacity. This is permitted, subject to making it entirely clear that you do not represent Verra Mobility in doing so, and that your views and actions are your own.
- You should not agree to make any personal political contribution when negotiating contracts or conducting business on behalf of Verra Mobility that could be influenced by the contribution. Consideration must be given to whether such a payment could constitute a bribe. (See "Bribes and Facilitation Payments".)

Guidance

- Individuals who are politically active or make contributions in their individual capacity must:
 - Ensure that any contributions of money or services are made in accordance with applicable law; and
 - Engage in the political process on their own time and using their own resources.

DO	DON'T
When not acting on behalf of Verra Mobility in compliance with the Political Contributions Policy, make clear that you are acting on your own account, when engaged in political activity	Make any personal political contributions on behalf of Verra Mobility
Consider Verra Mobility's reputation and how the public or media would perceive your actions	Use your position in Verra Mobility to influence any other person (inside or outside of Verra Mobility) to make political contributions on behalf of Verra Mobility

Remain alert to applicable laws and regulations when engaging with governments and officials

Report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity immediately (See Reporting Violations)

Charitable Donations

Principle

Verra Mobility will make no charitable donations, whether in cash or kind, except where the donation has been approved in accordance with the Verra Mobility Charitable Donations and Corporate Sponsorship (CDCS) Policy.

Rules

- The engagement with, or instructions to, Third Parties to make charitable donations on behalf of Verra Mobility in violation of the ABC and CDCS Policies are strictly prohibited.
- Charitable donations made on behalf of Verra Mobility, or from Verra Mobility's resources, are permitted only as specified in the Verra Mobility CDCS Policy.
- Charitable donations must not depend on, nor be made in order to win business or gain any other commercial advantage for Verra Mobility.
- Verra Mobility recognizes the rights of others engaged by or on behalf of Verra Mobility to make charitable donations as individuals in their personal capacity. This is permitted, subject to making it entirely clear that you do not represent Verra Mobility in doing so, and that your views and actions are your own.
- You should not agree to make any personal charitable donation when negotiating contracts or conducting business on behalf of Verra Mobility that could be influenced by the donation. Consideration must be given to whether such a payment could constitute a bribe. (See "Bribes and facilitation payments".)

Guidance

- Bribes may take the form of charitable contributions or sponsorships.
- When making charitable donations on behalf of, or in the name of Verra Mobility:
 - Donations must be given to a legitimate charitable organization, and not to an individual; and

- The recipient of the money and the purpose for which it is to be applied must be known.

DO	DON'T
Make clear that you are acting on your own account, not on behalf of Verra Mobility, when making a personal charitable donation Consider Verra Mobility's reputation and how the public or media would perceive your actions Report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity immediately (See Reporting Violations)	Make any personal charitable donations on behalf of Verra Mobility Ignore or fail to report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity

Working with Third Parties

Principle

Verra Mobility expects Third Parties to comply with the ABC Policy, or equivalent requirements, when acting on behalf of or otherwise representing Verra Mobility.

Verra Mobility has a clear position that forbids the use of Third Parties to undertake activity on its behalf that the ABC Policy prohibits Verra Mobility, or its people to undertake directly.

Rules

- The engagement with, or instructions to, Third Parties which violate the ABC Policy, or other Verra Mobility policies referenced herein, are strictly prohibited. Engaging with a Third Party with the express purpose of evading compliance or any other illicit purpose would amount to gross misconduct.
- Verra Mobility's stance on anti-bribery and corruption must be brought to the attention of Third Parties, who should;
 - undertake to comply with it (or an equivalent standard or behavior) in all dealings on our behalf; and
 - undertake that any subcontractor engaged on Verra Mobility's behalf will agree to comply with it, and will be managed to ensure compliance;

before engaging the Third Party to start work for or represent Verra Mobility.

- Third Parties who are unable or unwilling to comply must not be engaged.

- Due diligence must be undertaken on all Third Party business partners, to assess the potential corruption they represent before engaging with them.
- Where risks are identified, you should seek advice before proceeding with the engagement (See Reporting Violations).
- Where a Third Party is identified as representing a heightened risk, consideration should be given to the level of supervision and monitoring required to mitigate and manage the risk (if any).
- Where improper conduct by Third Parties is identified, it must immediately be reported internally (See Reporting Violations).

Guidance

- You should exercise caution when dealing with Third Parties, or when engaging with governments or public officials, particularly when they are helping you market or promote Verra Mobility's business.
- The level of due diligence on a Third Party will depend on who/what the business partner is and the nature and purpose of the relationship. It will often be sufficient just to establish the Third Party's identity and bona-fides. Anything more should be proportionate to the risks, known or identified.
- All facts about the Third Party contributes to the assessment of risk and each relationship has to be considered on its own merits.
- Commitment from Third Parties to ethical behavior when working for Verra Mobility is essential. This can be achieved either by establishing the adequacy of the Third Party's procedure, or by supplying them with a copy of Verra Mobility's ABC Policy as a benchmark.
- The following principles should be applied when engaging a Third Party on behalf of Verra Mobility:
 - payments must reflect the value of the services to be provided by the Third Party;
 - the Third Party should have a proven track record in the business area and geographical location concerned;
 - the services to be rendered by the Third Party must be legitimate. The nature of the services and the price must be described in a written contract containing undertakings from the Third Party that they will not engage in corrupt activity;
 - the scope of the services and the price should be documented in writing along with an undertaking from the Third Party that they will not engage in corrupt activity when acting for Verra Mobility; and
 - the contract with the Third Party must include and require acknowledgement of the Code of Business Ethics and Conduct for Consultants or Product and Service Providers.

DO	DON'T
Engage Third Parties in good faith and with awareness of the associated risks Undertake due diligence prior to engaging a Third Party Manage the activities of Third Party relationships to ensure compliance with the ABC Policy and other applicable legal and regulatory obligations Report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity immediately (See Reporting Violations)	Use agents or other Third Parties to do anything indirectly on behalf of Verra Mobility which you would not be permitted to do yourself Allow Third Parties to represent Verra Mobility in high risk situations (e.g. in dealings with government officials) without proper supervision Ignore or fail to report any concerns you have about improper conduct or corruption activity

Reporting Violations

Concerns or reports about violations of the ABC Policy should be made to an appropriate manager or a member of the Verra Mobility Compliance and Ethics Committee³. You may also make a confidential report to the Verra Mobility EthicsLine (which can be done anonymously), online at ethicsline.verramobility.com or via the toll-free telephone number 844-927-2814 in the U.S.

It is best to report your concerns orally when possible to provide an opportunity for a meaningful discussion of your concerns, and to avoid creating a record of the matter that may be incomplete and misleading.

Retaliation against an individual who reports a violation of the ABC Policy is prohibited by the Company and will be dealt with as a separate violation of Company policy. We will not tolerate retaliation against employees who raise good faith ethics and compliance concerns.

³ The Compliance and Ethics Committee includes the Chief Financial Officer, Chief People Officer, General Counsel, Deputy General Counsel – Government Solutions and Director of Contracts and Compliance.

Definitions

Agent - a representative who normally has authority to make commitments on behalf of the principal represented. The terms "representative," "consultant" or "intermediary" are also often used.

Bribe - a financial or other advantage, intended to induce a person to give improper assistance in violation of their duty, or to otherwise improperly influence someone with the purpose of obtaining/retaining business, or an advantage in the course of business.

Bribery - the soliciting/receiving/offering/giving of a Bribe.

Charitable Donation - any contribution, made in cash or in kind, to support a charitable cause. Contributions in kind can include gifts of property or services, advertising or promotional activities endorsing a charitable cause, the purchase of tickets to fundraising events and contributions to research or other organizations with close associations with a charitable cause. See the Verra Mobility Charitable Donations and Corporate Sponsorship Policy.

Corruption - the misuse of entrusted power/breach of duty for personal gain.

Facilitation Payments - small bribes, whether paid in cash or in kind, made to government or Public Officials to speed up routine administrative processes or other actions, also known as "grease payments".

Hospitality - includes entertaining, meals, receptions, tickets to entertainment, social or sporting events, participation in sporting events. Such activities are usually given or received to initiate or develop relationships between business people. The distinction between hospitality and gifts can blur, especially where the giver of the hospitality does not attend and act as the host.

Political Contribution - Any contribution of money or property by Verra Mobility (a) to any candidate for election to political office; (b) to any political party or committee; (c) to promote or support any ballot initiative; or (d) to any political action committee or other entity or association organized for the purpose of nominating, electing or appointing a person to a political office in any governmental unit.

Public Official – Includes:

- an officer or employee of a government or any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of a government (e.g. civil servants, local government and the armed forces);
- an officer or employee of a "public international organization" or any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of such public international organization (e.g. the United Nations, the World Bank, the European Commission, etc.);

- an employee of a company or other business entity in which a governmental body has an ownership interest and/or over which such governmental body may, directly or indirectly, exercise a dominant influence (e.g. state owned commercial enterprises);
- a political party or a member of a political party or a candidate for political office; and
